

Counterfeiting as an activity managed by transnational organized crime
- The Italian case -

Index

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| List of Acronyms.....   | 3   |
| 1. Introduction.....  | 5   |
| 2. Methodology.....   | 11  |
| 2.1 Sources.....  | 11  |
| 2.2 Quantitative analysis: size of the phenomenon.....  | 16  |
| 2.3 Qualitative analysis: case studies exam.....  | 18  |
| 3. Situation analysis.....  | 22  |
| 3.1 Define the dangerousness of counterfeiting.....   | 22  |
| 3.1.1 Size of the phenomenon in Italy and in the World.....   | 22  |
| 3.1.2 Social dangerousness of counterfeiting.....   | 38  |
| 3.2 Organized crime: which definitions?.....  | 44  |
| 3.2.1 Transnational organized crime.....  | 44  |
| 3.2.2 Organized crime in Italy: a general view.....   | 50  |
| 3.3 Reasons of attractiveness to criminal organizations.....  | 60  |
| 4. Mapping of the involvement of organized crime in counterfeiting crimes.....                                      | 68  |
| 4.1 Criminal management of counterfeiting in Italy.....   | 68  |
| 4.1.1 Production phase and supply of raw materials.....   | 70  |
| 4.1.2 Management, delivery and distribution of the goods.....   | 74  |
| 4.1.3 Main counterfeit products.....  | 84  |
| 4.1.4 The role of transnational organized crime.....  | 87  |
| 4.1.5 Features of local organized crime: relations between organizationsand geography of involved networks..... | 98  |
| 4.1.6 The routes of crime: origin, transit and destination.....   | 112 |
| 4.1.7 Technologies employed by criminal networks and strategies tocounter them.....                             | 115 |
| 4.2 Links with other serious crimes .....  | 122 |
| 5. Tools to counteract the phenomenon.....  | 128 |
| 5.1 The Italian legal system.....   | 128 |
| 5.2 Investigations: competent authorities and guidelines (main methods).....  | 136 |
| 5.3 Tools of international cooperation.....   | 139 |
| 6. Conclusions.....   | 147 |
| Bibliography.....   | 152 |
| ANNEX 1 Description of the main operations and case studies.....  | 157 |
| ANNEX 2 Interviews.....   | 196 |